

Dominion Energy Virginia ----- Competitive Industrial Rates

Industrial Rate Comparison, average rate per kilowatt-hour, 1,000 kW and 650,000 kWh usage

As of February 2020, Dominion Energy Virginia's typical industrial rate is 25.5% below the Southeast Peer Group average, 33.5% below the CNBC "Top States for Business: 2017" average, 39.9% below the national average, 45.2% below the East Coast average, and 52.5% below the RGGI states average.

--Dominion Energy Virginia bill: Industrial rate effective February 2020. Source Company data

--Southeast Peer Group: AL Power, Duke (NC), Duke (SC), Entergy MS, FPL, GA Power, Gulf Power, MS Power, Duke Energy Progress (NC), Duke Energy Progress (SC), Duke Energy Florida, SCE&G, Tamps Electric, Kentucky utilities, and Louisville Gas and Electric

--CNBC "Top Ten States for Business" include WA, GA, MN, TX, NC, CO, VA, UT, TN, MA

--RGGI (Regional Greenhouse Gas Initiative) states include ME, NH, VT, MA, RI, CT, NY, DE, MD

Source: Edison Electric Institute, Typical Bills and Average Rates Report: Summer 2017. Rates effective July 1, 2017. Annualized, monthly industrial bills, 1,000 kW demand and 650,000 kWh usage. Latest data available.